2nd International Education Conference Leadership in a Learning Society

11-12 November 2008

Beijing Normal University

This bi-lateral Conference, hosted by Beijing Normal University and the Institute of Education, University of London, provides a cross-disciplinary, international opportunity for the study of leadership in education.

Invited speakers of international reputation will address the Conference. Colleagues from the Institute of Education and Beijing Normal University will co-chair the sub-themes strands to enable deep insights and opportunities for discussion and reflection. Confirmed speakers include: Professor Krishna Kumar, Director of India's National Council for Educational Research and Training; Professor Geoff Whitty, Institute of Education; Professor Alma Harris, Institute of Education; Professor Gu Mingyuan, Beijing Normal University.

Participants are invited to present proposals within the following four sub-themes:

- Moral leadership and citizenship
- Building sustainable learning communities
- Leading in urban schools
- Developing educational leaders

All keynote addresses will have simultaneous translation Chinese/English. All paper presentations will be co-chaired (English and Chinese) and there will be translation.

Full papers by 31 October 2008 for inclusion in Conference proceedings.
